GLITTERATI ON THE GO

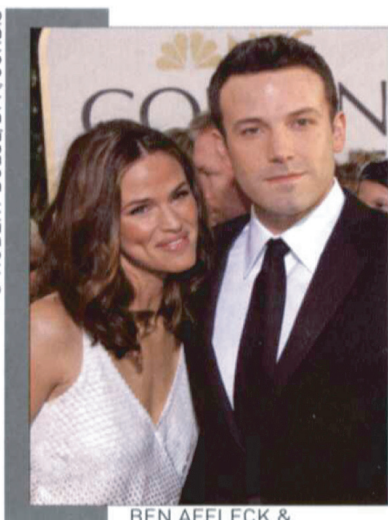

Travel Aid: A recent four-hour delay at LAX didn't make one famous cross-country traveler cranky. Actor Elijah Wood, who recently appeared in Bobby and wowed an even larger audience as the voice of Mumble in Happy Feet, not only lugged his own luggage, he helped a carry-on-challenged fellow passenger grab her bags upon arrival at JFK. Stellar

Accommodations: Ever wondered about the houses of your favorite household names? On Parrot Cay in the Turks & Caicos, where Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck tied the knot, villas owned by Donna Karan and Christie Brinkley are available for rent. Brinkley's comes with a full-size swimming pool, an outside shower garden and, for an additional fee, a personal chef or butler. Breakfast is included. Paparazzi are not. Unless famous neighbor Keith Richards happens to be in town. Accompanied Minors: The kids all showed up with celebrity parents, like Joely Fisher and Angie Harmon, at The Boom Boom Room gift lounge at the Hyatt Regency Century Plaza in Los Angeles. In the Mattel suite, actor Greg Grunberg had his co-star's back. "I am totally grabbing this Cheerleader Barbie for Hayden [Panettiere]," he said. "It looks just like her on Heroes."
